

SUMMER 2021 HOMECOMING

Mental Health & The Importance of Camp

March 17 at 10AM

Campfireside chat: Let's get psyched! Is summer '21 exactly what children, teens, and parents need? Join this panel of child psychologists and LCSWs for a look at children's mental health, why camp in a pandemic and how this experience uniquely meets this moment. Also hear tips and a conversation to help both parents and children get ready for sleepaway camp.

Moderated by: Lauren Nearpass, Founder of Summer 365, and Dave Malter, "Professor Dave"

Dan Wolfson, PsyD is clinical director of Experience Camps for Grieving Children, hosted by Camps Equinunk/Blue Ridge and Camp Somerset. Dan is a supervising psychologist at Rennie & Associates, a private therapy practice in downtown Manhattan.

Jenna Wolfson, LCSW is clinical director of Experience Camps for Grieving Children, hosted by Camps Equinunk/Blue Ridge and Camp Somerset. Jenna is a senior social worker at New York Presbyterian Weill Cornell, working primarily with adolescents.

Liz Morrison, LCSW is the owner of Liz Morrison Therapy in New York City. Liz has worked extensively with children, adolescents, teenagers, parents, families, and young adults.

Steve Mazza, Ph.D., is a licensed clinical psychologist and faculty member at Columbia University Medical Center (CUMC), as well as a camp consultant and staff trainer.